

ROCKETRY!
FUN FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY!

Southern Colorado Rocketeers are an amateur rocket club that meet twice a month to fly low, mid, and high power rockets. A rocket launch is a great place to have a fun time with your family and friends while also learning. There is no charge to be a spectator. Come check it out and let yourself get hooked on rocketry!

WHEN: First and Third Saturday Every Month.
(Weather Permitting. Updates posted on website)

WHERE: Stealey Memorial Launch Site at Hudson Ranch.

Turn-off is at these GPS Coordinates:

38° 8' 58.89"N 104° 48' 2.71"W

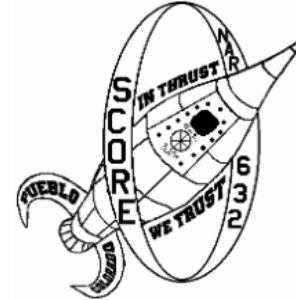

(Follow the dirt road through the cattle gate. Please close the gate behind you as you come onto the range.)
